There's A Mother Old and Grey Who Needs Me Now

Andante Moderato.

glid - ing in a lit - tle birch ca - noe, Then us, 'ear, to our home in Ma - ry - land, Your Jack said, "Dear why are you hes - i - tat - ing? You lit - tle girl will be my queen for ev - er, And say you love me, I don't un - der stand, But she sweet - est flow'rs will al - ways bloom for you, For to - an - swered, "lad for me please don't be wait - ing, Tho' I'd day as we were glid - ing down the riv - er, Jen - nie like to go with you to Ma - ry - land. dar - ling said these words with heart so true.

Chorus.

There's a moth - er old and gray who needs me now, Time has brought deep fur - rows to her once fair brow, Though so fond of you I've grown, yet can't leave her a - lone, It would on - ly cause her head in grief to bow, ——— Jack to me you've al - ways been so kind and true, ——— And you know I've ev - er faith - ful been to you, ——— Though this part - ing brings re - gret, still my heart must not for - get, There's a moth - er old and gray who needs me now. ———
